Elder Aaron titled his sermon "Within Arm's Reach Of Our Saviour". His message came from The Acts 11:19-23.

Have you ever seen the grace of God. Do you know his touch and feel his power and healing spirit within you. God doesn't need one single thing from us. God is God, all mighty, all merciful; Father, Son, Holy Spirit. In good times, in bad times, in all times we need to keep him in "arms reach".

PEACE

In both the Old and New Testaments, peace is described as the result of having a right relationship to God and with others.

Inner spiritual peace is experienced by any believer who walks in the Spirit despite surrounding turmoil. The true "peace of God" protects the hearts and minds of believers from worry, fear, and anxiety. It transcends all logic or rational. The God of Peace who offers salvation also promises His presence and power in the lives of His children. His presence creates in us a quiet confidence regardless of circumstances, people, or things.

Though impossible to comprehend fully, true peace is a fruit of the Holy Spirit and a part of the "whole armor of God". According to the Apostle Paul, our understanding and experiencing of the gospel produces peace that allows us to walk boldly into spiritual battle and to survive all manner of difficulty and danger. The believer receives peace from God as a virtue of holy living and a protection from evil and uncertainties. Where the peace of God is present there is no room for worry.

The fruit of the Holy Spirit affects the believer's relationship with God, others and with ourselves. As Christians grow in their relationship with the Lord, they develop unselfish love, true joy, and lasting peace. As they build relationships with others, they are challenged to reflect His patience, kindness, and goodness. As they mature spiritually, Christians discover an inner strength which results in faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

While Christians are not spared from suffering, they are promised deliverance from sin and the inner resources through knowledge of the love of God and the bounties of the Holy Spirit.
