Elder Aaron Beaty spoke God's Word from John 4:35
Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

A NOBLE MINISTRY – MOTHERHOOD – By Janet Glascock

More than a job or responsibility, mothering is a ministry. Most assuredly it takes work! It means sacrifice. Children do not come off an assembly line, nor are they the by-product of an impersonal biological process; they are to be lovingly nurtured by their mothers. Mothers divide time among their children but multiply their love for all their children. To this they add the care of the husband and home.

When Isaiah searched for an illustration of God's constant love for His people, the best example he could find was a new baby's mother. Mothers have enduring love that even the most trying circumstances or rebellious child cannot dim. As a mother lets go of her own life for the sake of her child, she is reminded of the depth and height of God's love for her, and in a unique way she experiences the true joy of motherhood.

There are caring mothers in the Bible. Hagar, wandering in the wilderness, wept for her child, and God responded to the cry of her heart by revealing a well of water nearby. Jochebed, mother of Moses, defied Pharaoh in order to save the life of her son. The courage of Ruth reminds us of a mother's need for her children to be safe and secure. We cannot forget Mary; the young virgin girl God chose to be the mother of Jesus Christ our Saviour. We all think our children are special, smart and talented but Mary's son was chosen to be the King of Kings. He would lead the nations. Mary knew her son's life would not be easy, but she was also His mother and cried when He hurt. John 19:26 When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciples whom he loved standing by, He said to his Mother, Woman behold your son!

God has a plan for mothers. The high calling is an all-consuming task. Godly mothers are the nation's greatest treasure, the Lord's best helpers, and the most blessed among women.
