HAPPY, HEALTHY, THANKFUL, FREE

Psalm 100:4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

Let Us Be Thankful. Let me count my blessing one by one. I literally can't count that far. Can you? I am blessed beyond words with the love from God. Who else can make a sunrise that takes ones breath away and a sunset fading into the western skies full of hues and colors not shown on a paint palette? Who else can form a snow flake? Who else but God can do all the wonderful things in life such as creating beautiful babies and piecing together a perfect rose, petal by petal. He gives us grass so green in the spring when we are longing for a whisper of life through the browns and grays of winter. I could not in a year list all the things I am thankful for and all because God chose me to love and gave His life for me. Let us bless his name every chance we get.

I do not like or entertain the thought that it is politically incorrect to say Merry Christmas. Mary gave us Jesus, God gave us Christ. And we, as Christians are supposed to hunker down and say Season's Greetings or be ashamed to say a public prayer in our Father's Name. I am thankful I still have the freedom to praise my Lord and give Him the Honor of who I am and the accomplishments He has bestowed upon my life.

Is it only correct to say "God Bless You" if you are from the South. I want God to bless me and I ask him to Bless You. I am thankful to God, for giving me friends and family to love, adore and cherish. I am thankful he put Goshen Church on a hill overlooking the Missouri River some 187 years ago. I am thankful God has put me in the middle of the United States where we have the freedom to vote, work and worship of our own choice. I am thankful I have the opportunity and privilege to go to church on Sunday morning and be in the presence of God and His people.

Healthy, Happy, Thankful. I Praise God for it all.
