HAPPY, HEALTHY, THANKFUL, FREE

For the past three weeks I have touched on Happy, Healthy, Thankful. This week I want us to think about Free.

Deuteronomy 15:13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

Let Us Be Free. In the name of freedom battles have been fought since the beginning of time. The Old Testament Kings and heads of families have fought for freedom. Some wars are for the right reasons and other in the name of lust, greed and self-importance. To be able to worship God in a free spirit is one of the most important acts since the beginning of time. You can take the privilege out of the country, out of the schools, out of the newspapers but you can't take it out of your hearts of God's chosen people. Let us reclaim the courage to be free to speak our God's name and be proud to say my God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son... for me.

We hear the phrase these days..."It's all about me". No, in fact it is all about Jesus. The life God chose for Him to live; and his death; so that we might live a life here on earth and forever after. Let us honor Him. Let's us use our free spirit to work for God.

I need to do something, LORD. I don't even know what. There are things we can do to uplift the name of our Lord, and Savior. No, it is not about me... it is about giving of oneself when our chips are down and lifting someone who needs a hand, a smile, a good wish. It is saying out loud we believe in the one living God, our creator. It is prayer and discipline and respect. God doesn't back away and tell us He is too busy, He doesn't have time; He'd rather watch a game, play golf or go shopping. He is on time, putting His people first, working hard every day, 24/7.
