ABOUT THE CELEBRATION!

Churches will be filled on Easter Sunday morning. We will rise, dress and go to church. It is not a celebration but rather a show of respect and acknowledgment of what God sacrificed for His people. Easter is a gentle and yet harsh reminder of Jesus birth and his death. Easter has nothing to do with hiding eggs but all to do about the blood of Jesus and His death for our sins.

Big money for retailers is being made for every holiday on the calendar. Christmas is celebrated as shiny lights and lots of gifts when the only gift that should be celebrated is the birth of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

John 19:6-7 <sup>6</sup> When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. <sup>7</sup> The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

As we reread the pages of the Bible telling us of Jesus journey to the Cross, the horrible betrayal of his friends and disciples, the agony and anguish of his Mother Mary, and the actual description of being nailed to the cross our hearts cry out because of the injustice of the horrible act. What we miss is the knowledge that Jesus's death was all God's plan. God has a plan for this world as it was over 2,000 years ago and a plan for the universe today. Make no mistake God knows what the plan is, and He is going to carry it out in his own timing.

I am not a person who dislikes a family get together filled with laughter, good food and sweet memories. But we have lost the real reason for the season. Every season. Along with the festivities of the holiday we need to teach our children why we celebrate Easter, Independence Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. These are not days for colored eggs, firecrackers, pumpkin pie and a mountain of gifts to open. As we gather to celebrate, we also need to teach our young the "why" because in this politically correct world, the reason is not being taught as part of history. These are the days to remember sacrifice by man for the inheritance of freedom for other people.

I pray for the young to be taught love, respect, giving and kindness. And the old to be able to live and die with dignity, honor and grace.
